SESSIONS OF THE COLORADO CONFERENCE.

Methodism in what is now Colorado was filed upon when Bishop Scott, on April 18, 1859, read out "Pike's Peak and Cherry Creek" as one of the appointments "to be supplied" in the Kansas and Nebraska Conference, which body has since waxed to eight large conferences. It was forthwith prospected and staked by Goode, Adriance and Retze the following summer. March 15, 1860, it was styled the Rocky Mountain District of said Conference. From March 21, 1861, to July 10, 1863, it appeared as the Rocky Mountain District of the Kansas Conference.

Under enabling act of the General Conference of 1860, on July 10, 1863, it was organized as the Rocky Mountain Conference: Six preachers, 241 members, 32 probationers, 14 local preachers, 10 Sunday schools, officers, teachers and scholars, 1 church worth $300, 1 parsonage worth $400.

In May, 1864, the General Conference changed its name to the present Colorado Conference. At times it has had a Dakota District, a Santa Fe District and a Wyoming District, by reason of which last fact it held its session of 1888 at Cheyenne, Wyoming, at which time the Wyoming Mission came into existence, which in 1914 became the Wyoming State Conference, transferring 9 Coloradoans as Charter Members. The Spanish New Mexico work became a Conference with 30 members in 1893. Since 1888 its boundaries have been practically those of the State of Colorado, Chama, in New Mex'co, being included for railway convenience in 1900.

DIRECTORY AND PASTORAL AND ANNUITY RECORD OF TRAVELING PREACHERS IN THE COLORADO
ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

(Subject to Change Upon Evidence.)

Gives only work done as a Traveling Preacher, whether On Trial, or in Full Membership, under Bishop's published appointment. Excludes "Supply Work." Relations entered into before March 1st of any year, give a major fraction of a year, which counts as a whole year; after March 1st, the minor fraction is ignored, as it will be regained upon transferring to a late spring Conference.

“Traveling Years” signifies total years connected with any Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. “Disciplinary Annuity Years” signifies one’s Effective Years therein anywhere, upon which the Disciplinary Annuity will be computed as Claimant. “Jubilee Annuity Years” signifies one’s paying years as a member of the Colorado Conference Preachers’ Aid Society as constituted to Conference of 1911, which bring additional annuity from its Jubilee Fund. Fractions of years disregarded for publication. These years now cease to increase. Their total has actually decreased about one-seventh since 1910.

A * indicates a nominally effective appointment which the Brother requests not counted for Annuity purposes, and the Conference so orders.

Postoffices are in Colorado unless otherwise stated.

Hollenback, which he alleged would include such courtesies in the way of entertainment for the Veterans of the Cross Fellowship as has become customary, and are in force at La Junta. In harmony therewith, C. B. Wilcox specially invited to Trinity, while C. A. Rowand and George Clammer invited to Fort Collins, and G. M. Henderson to St. Paul, Pueblo. AGREEMENT AS TO DENOMINATIONAL COMITY RELATIONS.

Believing that such an agreement will be in keeping with denominational comity, conducive to administrative economy, contributive to efficiency in Gospel ministrations, and satisfactory to the citizens of the communities affected thereby, we, the undersigned, on our own initiatives, recommend that the following agreement be entered into by the Presbytery of Pueblo and the Colorado Annual Conference, representing respectively the Presbyterian Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church:

1. In Montezuma County, Colorado, there shall be established a geographical division of territory between the Presbyterian and Methodist Episcopal Churches, and there shall be an assignment of non-conflicting responsibility to each denomination for its own division.

2. The line of division shall be drawn east and west throughout the entire length of Montezuma County, Colorado, half way between the northern boundary line of said county and the northern boundary line of the Southern Ute Indian Reservation, as such lines are now located on the current maps of the county.

3. The portion north of this imaginary division line shall be referred to as the northern portion of Montezuma County, and the portion south of this imaginary line shall be referred to as the central portion of Montezuma County.

4. The northern portion of Montezuma County shall be assigned to the Methodist Episcopal Church and it shall assume all responsibility for maintaining and extending Gospel ministry therein. To that end the Presbyterian Church shall suspend its activities in that division, and shall not maintain or establish any Presbyterian church or churches therein, and shall not extend its Sabbath schools, outstations, or societies into this division during the life of this agreement.

5. The central portion of Montezuma County shall be assigned to the Presbyterian Church and it shall assume all responsibility for maintaining and extending Gospel ministry therein, except that in Cortez, Colorado, the county seat of Montezuma County, the Methodist Episcopal Church shall maintain its church as now established therein. To that end the Methodist Episcopal Church shall not maintain or establish any other church or churches, and shall not extend its Sabbath schools, outstations, classes or societies in the central portion of Montezuma County, except as articulated into and a part of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Cortez, Colo., during the life of this agreement.

6. This agreement shall be valid when approved and adopted by the Presbytery of Pueblo and the Colorado Annual Conference, and when a record of the approval and adoption by these bodies, respectively, shall be reciprocally exchanged.

7. This agreement shall be introduced into the Presbytery of Pueblo and into the Colorado Annual Conference by the undersigned, individually or conjointly, and shall be recommended at the next meeting of these bodies, respectively, for approval, adoption and record.

8. Nothing in this agreement shall be held to take away or impair the future jurisdiction and constitutional rights of the Presbytery of Pueblo or the Colorado Annual Conference, and these bodies at any time, individually or mutually, may abrogate it when it appears to each or both best so to do. However, during the life thereof, and until notice of its abrogation is exchanged, this agreement shall be a working basis of comity relations between the Presbytery and Methodist Episcopal Churches in Montezuma County, Colorado.

M. H. MacLEOD,
Pastor Evangelist of the Presbytery of Pueblo.

After long discussion, the District Superintendents were instructed to try to bring about the rectification of these errors if possible before the publication of the Minutes.

VII. Reports Made to the Conference

REPORTS OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

COLORADO SPRINGS DISTRICT.

It is perhaps a wise thing that reports are written after events rather than before them. I am sure that any a priori conclusion that the present district superintendent of the Colorado Springs District might have indulged in at the beginning of this Conference year could not quite match the facts as he has been compelled to face them and to seek to draw conclusions from them. Perhaps I was wrong when I felt that the district superintendent was more feared than inwardly honored, more palavered over than honestly dealt with, who got his position because he had a pull or had become passé in the ministry, but whether right or wrong, I knew that this feeling was shared by a good many in the ministry. A year has now passed, and a change has come over the spirit of my imaginings. I am not hilarious over this position, but I think fairly sensible. I can now see how a good man with business sagacity and vision can make the district superintendency pay to general Methodism, and I now thoroughly believe that it, or something like it, must be an integral part of our Methodism to preserve our unity and connectional system and to keep a general oversight over the work.

The surprises of the year have been several. To one who has been taught to believe that scholastic training is quite essential to success, the year's observation has startled me. It is well that no general rule should be deduced from what I have seen, for then our schools might as well be closed. So far as I have been able to discern there has been no difference in effectiveness between the so-called untrained men and the men of the schools. Some of the outstanding things of the year's work have been done by both classes, and I should be uninclined to make a choice as to where the greater effectiveness lies. I have always believed, and still believe, that the use of books must figure largely in the work of the successful minister, but I am equally certain that no such rule could be established from my observation among over forty preachers during the past year. The student has had his success, and the man of affairs has had his success, and summing all things I should say that the balance tipped in favor of the man who kept most of the time out of his library. It grieves me to make this remark, but it has simply one year's observation behind it, and not six years. I have also been surprised to find how little pastoral work counts in some quarters and how vastly beneficial it has proved in other places. I have come to the conclusion that the chief thing which goes to make up success in the ministry is not education, the use of books, pastoral work, preaching—not even goodness and meekness—but spirit. He has the success whose spirit rose above the mechanics of his work, whose theology percolated through to his heart, who felt the urgency of his call to the ministry and enthroned it in the supreme place of his convictions.

There has been some increase in church property this year. The most notable enterprise in the district has been the erection of a beautiful church building by the St. Paul congregation of Colorado Springs. Brother W. E. Bennett, the tireless pastor of the church, with a loyal and zealous congregation backing him, has added a gem of architecture to the many beautiful church buildings in Colorado Springs. The building is easily worth $7,000. G. H. Stuntz has built one of the most beautiful parsonages in the state at Colorado City, with a value of $4,500. J. H. Boner, from the Kansas Conference, was placed at Hugo. Instantly the town responded to his preaching and labor. A new church lot was secured, paid for, and the foundation of a beautiful church started. We welcome Brother Boner, and believe that he will be able to place for good his mark on the Methodism of Colorado. W. F. Clark has done a startling work at Littleton in placing a $2,000 addition to the church. This needful work was carried on by the sheer force of the personality of the pastor, and he is deserving much credit.

The great revival in the district was in Colorado Springs under the leadership of Billy Sunday. There were 4,300 conversions, and all the Methodist churches of the Springs and the church of Colorado City were greatly increased in membership. Six hundred names were handed in to the pastor of the great First Church, and an average of 100 members were added to each of the churches—St. Paul, Asbury and Colorado City. All of the surrounding towns felt the impulse of the revival. The town of Calhan, through the intrepid and successful pastor, Frank Palmer, secured Billy Sunday for one morning service, with the result that there were over one hundred conversions. Perhaps the greatest revival apart from the one at Colorado Springs was held at Burlington. With an evangelist to help Pastor John Brand the entire town was religiously shaken to its foundations. Falcon and Arvada both had good revivals, while Goldfield deserves special mention because of the excellent work which J. H. Ketcham has done in giving some permanency to a work which had seemed to be defunct.

Changes.—Conference had adjourned but a short time when Brother H. D. Seckner, in the performance of his duty, suddenly fell on sleep. His charge, Idaho Springs, was immediately supplied by C. E. Liston, a student at Iliff, who has done good work and is wanted back for another year. Lafayette and Louisville made a request to the district superintendent to unite the two charges in one circuit and to appoint a pastor for them. Brother E. W. Day of Lafayette and W. M. Hall of Louisville, both of whom had been doing good work, consented to the arrangement, and Bishop McConnell transferred in from the Kansas Conference W. B. Read, who has been handling the charges in a highly satisfactory way. R. E. Pierce of Leadville a few months after Conference gained the permission of the district superintendent to take up work in Illinois. Leadville was vacant for a number of weeks before W. M. Garner was secured for the place. Brother Garner has done an excellent work at Leadville, and will later ask for admission to the Conference. Parker was left vacant in the middle of the year by the removal of F. W. Pimlott to Alamosa. H. J. Catterall was appointed to the place, and has done a fine work. W. L. Wade left Jefferson Avenue after graduating from Iliff and was appointed by Bishop McConnell to a responsible church in Wyoming. Mark Fields took up the work as the new pastor. He had formerly been pastor of the church and the people quickly renewed their affections and Brother Fields is much beloved by his people.

In regard to the benevolences, if we shall be able to equal the amount of last year I think that it may be counted as a victory. There are twenty-one charges in my district, constituting precisely one-half of the entire number, which lie in the mountains or in the coal mining districts. With but two or three exceptions, all of these towns are supported by mining. The year has been especially hard upon this class of industry, and the struggle to maintain current expenses has been severe in many quarters. The towns on the plains will make a better showing on account of the good prospective crops, and will in a measure go to offset what failures there may have been in the mountainous districts.

It would give me pleasure to speak of all the brethren and mention their names with their activities. There are some great pastors in the district, and their ceaseless activities have filled me with joy. B. F. Young of Limon goes everywhere and omits no detail of his work. L. J. Hole has put brains and plans and winning ability into the work at Canon City. J. R. Thomas of Florence has out-boxed, out-wrestled, out-gamed all the refractory elements in Florence during the four years he has been pastor, but he has done all these things in such a complete and masterful way that no one talks of the effeminacy of the Christian religion in his presence. He is wanted everywhere. G. A. Cage is one of the most tireless workers in this district. He has climbed all the mountains about Central City in search of kings who are hid in the stuff of life. My record shows that T. C. Collister of Victor has made 2,615 calls this year, which record is not quite up to date. G. H. Stuntz of Colorado City is a man for men. He has gripped the situation with a firm hand. The number of things which he does for the kingdom is amazing. I cannot keep up with him. Among other things, I note that he has made more than 2,600 calls this year. W. E. Bennett of St. Paul's Church, Colorado Springs, is wanted back for the fifth year at an increased salary of $300. His children's church, which he conducts himself every Sunday afternoon, is one of the most interesting and helpful enterprises for children that I have ever seen. C. R. Garver has had a fine year at Asbury. He has done much pastoral work and is always ready to help the brethren in evangelistic work. The church is in better shape than it has ever been in its history. Charles B. Steele of Golden does not permit anything to be found wanting in his pastorate. He is universally esteemed, and his brethren say that there is nothing too good for him in the Methodist Church. It would be a pleasure to speak of the remarkable work of J. G. Brawn at Silver Plume; of the graciousness of W. T. Gatley of Steamboat Springs, and with special mention made of his highly cultured wife; of the student-like precision and fine gentlemanly spirit of W. F. Clark of Littleton; of the splendid work of A. M. McLean of Salida, showing this year one of the finest records ever made by his church; of Robert Titmarsh, working against great odds of poor health, but so impressing himself upon his people that there is an unanimous request for his return. Merle Smith of First Church, Colorado Springs, has had perhaps the best year in his ministry. We speak this word softly, for while we believe that through the multitude of his ministrations he has attained his highest usefulness to others, yet his ceaseless activities were purchased at the expense of a bodily collapse, and for a number of weeks in the early summer the Angel of the Covenant was looking with near eyes into the face of this beloved pastor, and when he finally and reluctantly retired, and when Brother Smith came back with a wan and tired face we shall not forget how he told of the change of values which he discerned when he was in doubt whether his feet were going down in the valley of the shadow, and the fever of living was about over. We are glad that he is strong today, with the promise of better health than for years past.

And now, Brethren, suffer me just one more personal word before I close. I have been district superintendent for one year. My opinion of the office is that it is not a position to be struggled for, and it is not a position to be despised. I did not hope for the place last year; I did not desire it. It came and found reluctant hands taking hold of it. But the year has passed. There has been no record established, nor attempted. It has been what I should think an ordinary year of an ordinary district superintendent. I have preached, administered the sacrament, held quarterly conferences, baptized children and adults, have seen a number of people at the altars of God seeking Christ. I have traveled many thousand miles over an extensive district. Now, with the year gone, I return to God and the great Methodist Church my humble thanksgiving for an opportunity for rendering some service to the church and to men for one year.

WILLIAM T. SCOTT.

DENVER DISTRICT.

The business of every church is about the same: to minister to its own neighborhood. We have churches of different types because we have neighborhoods of different types. If a neighborhood of poor people has a church at all it must be a mission church. Then we have churches in the down-town and residence sections. The temptation of the down-town church is to draw very largely for its constituency upon the residence sections, neglecting to cultivate down-town regions. A survey in almost any down-town church would reveal that a very small per cent of the people in the church and Sunday School come from down-town sections. Every church should come to know its own field, and then pattern its organizations to suit the field.

We have six churches out in the fringes of the city. At best these churches have difficulty in building up a constituency and securing support in neighborhoods thinly settled and thickly churched. During our hard times these communities have suffered seriously from removals. Through the fine courage and devotion of such men as Carroll at Simpson, Bowman at Hess, Ferris at Harkness Heights, Glover at Berkeley, and Wilson at Englewood, they have held their posts, maintained their membership, increased the numbers and efficiency in their Sunday Schools, collected their benevolences and grown in favor with the people.

Ten of our churches are in strictly residence sections. Washington Park and University Park are community churches. The responsibility for the religious life of these neighborhoods is left by all denominations to these churches. Washington Park Church has become the center of influence for its section. University Park Church, because of its location and the strength it secures from our educational institutions, should soon take rank as one of our most important churches. Park Hill is Denver's most popular suburb, and our church in that locality is having an unusual growth. Christ and Asbury are fighting against great odds. Asbury is located on one edge of its parish. Christ Church is being encroached upon by foreigners. But these two churches are making for themselves a future by building a new constituency out of the youth of the neighborhood. Cameron has taken on new strength and influence, partly as the result of the two revivals conducted by the pastor and partly as a result of its strategic location. Grant is probably the best organized and best working church in the city and has the largest per cent of its children and young people in church and Sunday School. Highlands is in the heart of the best residence section of the North Side. It has almost doubled its membership in three years and has just finished and paid for a fine parsonage. Fifth Avenue has been steadily reducing its debt and increasing its membership both in the church and Sunday School despite the fact that there are eight other Protestant churches working in the same neighborhood. Warren Memorial Church has in its membership a group of energetic young business and professional men of real worth and recognized leadership. It has been thoroughly reorganized and enters with vigor upon its new program of extension. O. W. Fifer has taken high rank as one of the leaders of the moral forces of this city. Trinity and Grace are our two down-town churches. C. B. Wilcox is just finishing a pastorate of five years in Trinity, and by his unusual ability as pastor and preacher and by his fine personality he has welded Trinity into unity. F. R. Hollenback has become recognized among all the forces for righteousness in the city. He has thoroughly organized his church and has mapped out a program for the care and cultivation of the entire Grace Church parish.

Six of our smaller churches are supplied by student pastors--Clough, St. James, Merritt, Argo, Sloat and Wright. Faithful work has been done during the year in this group of churches.

The Denver Church Extension Society has now eight city missions. While in some of our smaller missions we seem to be getting but little return for our labor and investment, in others, like Barnum, Peoples', Globeville, Epworth and the Italian, the most remarkable results have been secured. Our new Mission Chapel in Barnum gives to this important mission adequate equipment for their work and makes it the center of the religious and the social life of the community.

The Italian Mission is one of the important institutions in our city. A membership of strong, reliable people is being built up. Aside from the regular religious activities, much Institutional work is being carried forward. Skilled musicians are instructing these Italian children weekly. An expert dressmaker teaches the girls to make their own clothing. Classes in cooking and physical culture are also conducted. We have a gymnasium for boys, a night school, an employment bureau, free baths, a department for legal advice and a medical dispensary. Six hundred and thirty-six dollars have been contributed this year by these people for self-support. Sixty-five per cent of the membership of the church are making regular weekly contributions toward the support of the church and the benevolences.

Epworth Mission property during the year has been sold to the Burlington Railroad. The trustees of the Denver Church Extension Society have purchased another and very much better site for a new plant. Plans for the building are being prepared and early in the Fall this new church at a cost of thirty thousand dollars will be constructed. Four thousand meals have been served to under-fed school children at an average cost of one cent for each meal. The pastor and his workers co-operated with the City Garden Association. Ground in the neighborhood of Epworth was prepared, seeds were furnished by the church and water for irrigating purposes by the city. The children of fifty poor families have cultivated this garden, and the families have had an ample supply of vegetables, many of them for the first time in their lives.

Finances.—Five churches have increased their salaries during the year. If the amount asked for in our church for local support and for benevolent causes were distributed over the entire church it would be a simple matter to raise this amount, and far easier to interest the whole church, for where your treasure is there will your heart be also. It cost last year to meet the expenses of local church support an average of $12.40 a member; $2.88 a member was the amount paid for our disciplinary benevolences; 72 cents a member was the contribution to other benevolent causes, amounting in all to $15.90 per capita, or an average of 30 cents a week for each member of the church. If churches like Highlands, Park Hill, Washington Park, University Park, Asbury, Christ, Grant, Cameron, Warren, People's and Epworth can thus solve the financial problems, then any church in the Denver district can do the same. The slogan of the whole church should be "Every member giving of themselves and their substance for the Lord's cause." We have failed to stress sufficiently the question of Christian Stewardship.

Evangelism.—Special meetings have been held in eighteen of our churches, with a good measure of success during the year. In every instance but one the Pastor was his own Evangelist. These meetings were not spasmodic efforts, soon held and soon over. They were in most instances the culmination of a long evangelistic campaign. Very many of our pastors make every service evangelistic. That being the trend of their preaching, Sunday School and pastoral work, the logical outcome of such a program is a period of in-gathering. The ability to enroll members, however, should not be made the sole test of a minister's efficiency, but also his ability to cultivate and train a membership. The program of our district comprehends not only reaching numbers, but also their care and cultivation. This program is being carried on along many lines. For example, in most of our churches marked progress has been made in Mission study and Bible study.

A group of our churches, such as Asbury, Grant, Park Hill, Christ, Epworth and Clough, are doing unusual things in the care and cultivation of boys and girls. Asbury Church is open every night in the week, and has become a center for the religious and recreational life of the neighborhood.

Our Sunday Schools are looked upon as our most efficient agencies, not only for evangelism, but for the cultivation of our people. There has been more development in our schools this year than in any previous year.

Interest in the Denver University during the year has centered largely in the Campaign for Endowment. An Executive Committee was created to carry on the Denver Campaign. This committee, under the leadership of Mr. F. J. Chamberlin, its chairman, the Chancellor, the Bishop and others, spent three months in preparation for the actual campaign which took place in May. A campaign of publicity brought the University to the attention of the Denver public, and as a result Denver people became interested. Four hundred persons took part in the campaign. Two hundred of this number were Denver business men, many of whom are among her leading citizens. The greatest asset of the campaign was not the money secured, but the friends made for the school. In the twelve-day campaign some eight thousand persons were solicited and pledges secured amounting to $161,000.00.

The Iliff School of Theology has had its best year. Five men were graduated and forty students were enrolled. In all probability no higher grade of work is done in any of our Theological Schools. The well-manned school is really training men for the Christian ministry, so that men going out from its walls into the Ministry, whether to city church or rural, are equipped for the practical problems of the Ministry. President Rall, besides being called upon for lectures and addresses in all parts of the church, has this year prepared the manuscripts for two books, one of which has just come from the press.

DAVID D. FORSYTH.

GRAND JUNCTION DISTRICT.

One man in this district occupies virtually a county. Preaching morning and evening at the county seat, he has gone on alternate Sunday afternoons seven miles into a country community and occupied a school house where ranchers have flocked to his ministry. On alternate Tuesdays he has proceeded to an adjacent village, twenty-seven miles, visited from house to house and preached in a Congregational church. On other Tuesdays he has traveled forty miles in a different direction, preached, baptized, shepherded, and returned the next evening. Again, he starts a new work fourteen miles from home, fixes a regular appointment, and rides the range meantime in the round-up with typical cowboy parishioners, who thus become acquainted with his Master. For variety he gives regular lectures on the Bible in the State Normal School during the summer. This pastor is George L. Nuckolls. His new church at Gunnison is under construction.

Another man to make a new church possible is F. T. Krueger of Montrose. I refer to the superstructure, of course, the basement walls being already in place, but even for this, sixteen hundred dollars were still owing when he arrived. The Sunday after Thanksgiving this sum was given, or pledged, more than $1,000 in actual cash being given on that day. An evangelistic effort by the pastor continued three weeks. Fifty-one professed conversion. On May 10, following agitation by the pastor, supported by a deluge of letters and literature and a week's solicitation with the aid of the superintendent, came Bishop Hughes to spend Sunday, the result being subscriptions of fifteen thousand dollars to enclose the building.

Among the spectacular successes of the year is that of R. L. Nuckolls of Palisade. Following years of discouragement from financial depression, the salary promised before Conference was cut to $800. Almost three hundred dollars debt on current expenses had accumulated. The interest on the church mortgage had gone unpaid for years. Installments on principal were past due. The membership had lost hope. Brother Nuckolls changed the whole scene. Inspired by his leadership, the support was fixed at $1,000 and parsonage. By methods known to himself, he supplemented the resources of the charge. The deficit in current expenses was raised, and before Christmas the interest on the church debt, together with $500 on principal, while the salary, always delinquent since I have known the church, has been paid promptly every month.

E. H. Fleisher, a Supernumerary of the Des Moines Conference, has done another stupendous piece of work. Not only was he able last fall to meet the exacting conditions of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for the adjustment of the crushing debt at Fruita, but during the current year he has secured subscriptions to meet another payment, together with large sums on interest. This makes a total of $5,200 paid or provided for in his brief pastorate.

At Cedaredge G. R. McDowell signalized his return by an evangelistic advance. Evangelist Lingren was secured to help, and about one hundred new members were added to the church. Financial conditions were a despair, but so also was the housing of the Sunday School and congregation. The revival meetings had been held in a hall down town. At their close the people could not be accommodated in the old building. In desperation the Quarterly Conference authorized a subscription. A preliminary canvass by the pastor and district superintendent culminated on May 17, when T. C. Iliff completed a subscription of $9,300 for the erection of a new church.

Paonia also falls into the list of charges making special advancement. The preaching and personality of E. Burns Martin prepared the way for a union revival meeting conducted by E. B. Pratt. Eighty-four were received on probation and thirty-eight otherwise, making a net gain of 138. The benevolences are in full.

Near Paonia is Bone Mesa. This field was organized three or four years ago by the Friends. They proved unable to care for it satisfactorily. J. M. Taylor, formerly of the Arkansas Conference, who resides in the community, began preaching for the Methodists. Brother Martin counseled and helped. By his arrangement the district superintendent visited the place on June 7, and after preaching and explaining our polity, received twenty-two persons, mostly representative adult citizens, into our church. An afternoon appointment, to be known as Fairview and related to Paonia charge, has been fixed. Material for a chapel has been provided.

Crawford is in the same region, twelve miles from railroad. Here J. Albert Shepherd has wrought well throughout his second year. There is a small increase in membership; the Sunday School is larger and better manned; benevolences the same as last year, and about $300 subscribed on University Endowment.

Hotchkiss and Lazear are administered as one charge. Everybody loves and honors Pastor H. R. Morris. A good revival was enjoyed at both appointments. Some seventy-five accessions to the church; a large increase in Sunday Schools, with rarely good men's and women's Bible classes, the former affording a wise and varied social service. The imperative need at Hotchkiss is a new church building.

Mention must be made of the good work of Louis Gale at Colonna and Uncompahgre. Excellent revival services were held at both places. J. T. Carson helped at Colonna and R. S. Chambers at Uncompahgre. Thirty-six professed conversion.

Norwood, one of our isolated charges in western Montrose county, has been served by J. M. Flynn. Benevolences, $200. His return is unanimously desired.

In Telluride B. F. Ross has given a faithful ministry, going out into adjacent camps at Ophir and Rico on week-days to carry the message. His financial showing in the premises is extraordinary. But the deluge of mud which swamped the town of Telluride on July 27 brought disaster. Two hundred thousand dollars will not repair the damage done. The Congregational church is closed. Ours is the only Protestant ministry in the city.

Olathe has had a good year with F. F. Gibbs as pastor. Since April he has supplied Floral Valley, the latter charge having become disintegrated on account of financial depression. There is a good showing for all causes. Eighteen conversions and twenty-two accessions.

At Delta the finest church edifice of the district is located. O. K. Maynard is pastor, and all people delight to do him honor. He has had a year of strongly constructive ministry; 135 conversions from the Platt meeting, 85 enrolled as probationers, 62 baptisms; 35 net increase in membership. All interests wisely administered, and a unanimous desire for his return.

A number of charges have suffered changes of pastors. G. W. Weyrauch resigned from Mesa December 1 and returned to the Des Moines Conference, having done inestimable work. A. E. Tuck, a young college graduate, and his bride assumed charge. They have done much effective work.

F. L. Davis served Ridgway for a single quarter and then was removed to enrich the Greeley District. He was succeeded by J. T. Carson, a transfer from Illinois, who has done much more than sustain life in this difficult field.

Clifton has had a similar record. U. C. Smothers transferred to Idaho in the spring, and Ivor G. Hyndman of the English Wesleyan Church has supplied. He had a good revival with considerable increase from accessions by letter.* A discouraging church debt has been subscribed.

At Loma and Mack the health of J. J. Davis broke. He was given three months' leave, but did not recover. A. W. Sneesby from the Iliff School supplied during the summer. Thanks to the faithful work of Brother Davis early in the year, the benevolences are all full.

Aspen and Rifle have both changed pastors during the year. When about the first of December J. J. Giblin determined to go to the Northwest and with the consent of Bishop McConnell was relieved from Rifle, J. T. Coulter was taken from Aspen to fill the vacancy. His preaching immediately gained recognition, and he has carried the charge with efficiency. Benjamin Eitelgeorge, absent from Boston on account of ill health, went to Aspen and has cared successfully for every interest. He will return next year at an advance of salary.

Grand Junction.—C. F. Seitter had been out of his pulpit for a month at our last session. Upon expectation of his early return, E. H. Smith was induced to become partial Supply. This arrangement continued until December, when Brother Smith also became ill and had to be relieved. The church meantime was supporting Brother Seitter in California, and the finances were becoming demoralized. Almost on the wing, J. J. Giblin was induced to take the charge, accepting half the support with parsonage, Brother Seitter to receive the rest. Brother Giblin wrought worthily, made 1,200 pastoral calls, securing large attendance upon the prayer meeting. More than this, an old debt has been paid, and the benevolences advanced beyond last year.

The inimitable John Z. Moore has rendered superb service at Carbondale, walking in the shadows while his cultured wife struggled with the dread white plague. In May the darkness fell upon his life, the light upon hers. But no interest of the kingdom was allowed to suffer.

The third year of Brother Klein at Glenwood Springs has been his best.

Eagle and Gypsum appeared to change pastors, but did not. C. D. Basham, who went from Boulder to Indianapolis and took unto himself a wife, has served the charge.

J. V. Watson has served both Grand Valley and Basalt.

Bethel and Debeque, supplied by W. H. Rose, a Retired Member of the St. Louis Conference, are fifty miles apart. It is only by the courtesy of the Colorado Midland that we are able to maintain these appointments. All interests of the work are carefully looked after, and there is a fine showing at Conference.

At the extremes of the district geographically are Meeker and the group of charges in the southwest corner of the state. McKendree De Motte has served Meeker. He is beloved by his people, a superior preacher, tactful and safe in administration. Support all paid; benevolences all in full. And yet this good brother has suffered no less than three painful surgical operations within the last few months. He ought to have died twice, but he lives and improves, now temporarily preaching from a chair. His return is desired.

Durango reports a firmer condition than for some years. R. S. Fairchild and wife have secured a somewhat different response than of old from the people of this city. Our members are encouraged. The Sunday School is coming to its own again. Financial support has been slightly easier. Benevolences are unfortunately low.

W. N. Snyder did a good year's work at Cortez and Dolores. He has returned to his former Conference.

The Montezuma circuit was served for some months by C. E. Harris, but because of the need of just such a man to open up new work on the White River, he was removed for a season to the Northwest. He did well there also. Tramped through the snows, visited from house to house, and held revival meetings for about a hundred miles in the school houses. Some thirty were converted, and an effort will be made to occupy this ground permanently. This circuit is triangular, and with one side 35 miles in length and the other 12. The right-angle side along the river ought to be extended in the opposite direction 75 miles to Rangely.

When C. E. Harris was removed from Montezuma circuit Howard L. Elston took his place. Through the inability of J. Q. Vermillion longer to meet the emergency at Ignacio and Bayfield, Brother Elston was sent to save the situation. He is a good preacher, of fine social qualities, a man's man, and a success. He is before you for reception on Trial. At Pagosa Springs C. J. Mekkelson has had a good year, the benevolences are well advanced, and all other interests cared for.

Chama, served by J. Albert Dean. After almost 20 years of missionary work in this field it begins to look as though we must soon write "finis." The lumbering interests are exhausted. The family which afforded chief support to our work has moved away, and while the reports this year are well sustained, Chama must take another step toward the rear. Ours is the only Protestant church in a stretch of one hundred miles, but it can be kept up by the aid of missionary money for a short time only.

In general, there is an advance in offerings for both Home and Foreign Missions. The Ladies' Aid Societies have raised about $10,000. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Auxiliaries are still led by the Paonia charge, and the "Home" by Grand Junction. The Epworth League membership remains about the same as last year. There is some growth in Sunday School attendance.

We note a feverish anxiety on the part of some pastors to reduce the membership returns. In spite of more than eight hundred reported conversions, the enrollment will be little in advance of last year. Smaller apportionments seem to be the object. Unfortunately, the methods employed result in the violation of Christian duty, justice and the Discipline.

The churches are doing well in supplying a varied social ministry, lectures, lyceums, economic discussions, and material aid to the needy. They do not hesitate at means, if only the people of God may answer in some worthy way the vociferous clamor of this sin-cursed race for a soul-satisfaction which itself does not understand.

GREELEY DISTRICT.

The work of the district superintendent during the year has been one of almost continuous outing; that is to say, out in the district. I have combined trout fishing with revival meetings, picnics with church dedications, vacations with conventions and institutes, and joy rides with quarterly conferences.

Through the Greeley district runs the coast to coast Lincoln highway, the first great national continental thoroughfare, that will cost twenty-five million dollars. It is to be the best highway in America.

Two charges only have had changes in pastors during the year. H. R. Osborne of Holyoke exchanged with W. A. A. Fortner of the St. Louis Conference, who is already in great favor, drawing large congregations in that over-churched town. C. L. Harrington was transferred from the Vernon circuit to Grover, and E. C. Conaway went to Vernon. No charge has made a complaint against its pastor, and the superintendent has not been called upon to adjust any complication during the year.

And here I want to pay my compliments to the loyal charges and the efficient pastors of the district. In this connection I modestly call attention to the fact that four of the pastors in the district received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the Denver University at the last commencement. There has been no fatal illness in any parsonage home. Rev. John Bretnall, a retired member of the Upper Iowa Conference, passed into the Heavenlies from his home in Boulder. He served the Jamestown circuit for three years, and was a devoted and faithful worker for the salvation of souls. E. E. Tuck was operated on for appendicitis and recovered from what was considered a hopeless case.

This year the earth has brought forth abundantly. Of all known degrees of prosperity, the extra, superlatively perfect degree can be found in Eastern Colorado. This means that debts will be paid, business will boom, farm houses will be built, barns will grow bigger and automobile agents will become millionaires. Our aim is to make the village and rural churches efficient in becoming the center of the economic, social, educational and religious activities of the towns and country communities. The pastors are becoming students of this important development of church work. Three of our men were attendants at the Rural Pastors' Institute at Estes Park.

The superintendent has given seven weeks to the endowment campaign of the University. More than $12,000 have been secured in pledges. The people throughout the district have manifested a live interest in this great movement for the University and are saying that it must not fail. The district was campaigned for foreign missions by E. R. Fulker-son, visiting twenty-five charges. In working out the "Parish Abroad" plan we were fortunate in having Peking University assigned to us as our parish. I wish we might have the same kind of a campaign for home missions.

The District Conference was held at Brighton Nov. 5 and 6, with twenty-four pastors present. The pastors pro-rated railroad fares.

Some Statistics.—Number of charges, 42; preaching places, 68; members of Conference, 28; supplies, 12. Thirteen charges pay an average salary of $342, fourteen charges $761, fifteen charges $1,310. Number of Sunday Schools, 61; Epworth Leagues, 46; Junior Leagues, 18; Brotherhoods, 7; Ladies' Aid Societies, 45; W. F. M. S., 10; W. H. M. S., 11. Every benevolence has increased; total increase, $748.

Evangelism.—Thirty-nine revival meetings have been held. In a majority of the charges the meetings were conducted by the pastors, in several cases being assisted by neighboring pastors. Evangelist F. H. Essert assisted C. W. Huett at Greeley, reporting 40 conversions. Mrs. Rose Potter Crist assisted Brother Mahood at Eaton in a splendid meeting. Evangelist E. T. Adams helped R. N. Smith at Windsor in a very remarkable meeting. A. J. Fitt held a tent meeting at Lyons. The following pastors conducted their own meetings: C. A. Rowand, at Ft. Collins, 50 conversions; R. H. Forrester, at Boulder, 100 conversions; R. H. Ayers, at Sterling, enrolling 69 probationers; W. D. Waller, at Julesburg, reporting 27 conversions; P. D. Griffin, at Merino, increasing the membership 110 per cent. D. D. Woodworth held a meeting at Fleming that was blessed with 20 conversions. E. G. Ingraham, at Otis, 17; T. B. Tyre, at Haxtum, 15; E. N. Edgerton, Ft. Morgan, 17; A. W. Rice, Wray, 17; C. L. Harrington, at a country school house, 30. Others holding meetings were C. W. Hancher, at Loveland; F. C. Norcross, at Akron; A. O. Amundson, at Brush; E. E. Tuck, at Hudson, J. A. McClelland, at Hygiene, and J. E. Bryan, at Brighton. Perhaps the most notable meeting was at Longmont, conducted by the Fife brothers, resulting in 900 reported conversions. Out of this number A. J. Waller received 100 into his church.

We have six local preachers and two exhorters. Class meetings vary from four to eight, but we have several more class leaders who have survived their classes, each one of whom is as solitary a figure as Napoleon on St. Helena. One new circuit has been added to the number of charges.

The Sunday Schools are prosperous. The Epworth Leagues are flourishing. The Brotherhoods are waning. The Aid Societies are the greatest working force in the churches.

Two charges faced critical conditions at the beginning of the year. At Wellington a $2,000 mortgage with two years' unpaid interest disheartened the people and they declared that it was impossible without help. Five hundred dollars were secured from the charge, $300 from the Board of Church Extension, and the Conference gave us $200 from the sale of an old church, all of which enabled us to pay $1,000 on the debt. The balance of the debt is carried on the parsonage, leaving the church clear of all encumbrances. The other critical case was Ft. Morgan. A mortgage was due and if not paid was in imminent danger of foreclosure. A loan of $5,000 was secured from the Board of Church Extension and the pastor undertook to raise the remaining $3,000, and in accomplishing this colossal task he prayed, and sweat, and bled, and all but died.

Debts and Improvements.—Eaton paid $500 on parsonage debt. Ft. Collins paid $6,000 on debt. Boulder $1,000 and $725 on church decoration. Brighton paid $335 clearing up parsonage debt and expended $125 on improvements. Sterling paid $1,000 on debt and $125 on improvements. Akron, $200; Box Elder, $100; Fleming, $250; Ft. Lupton, $100; Holyoke, $350; Hygiene, new basement at cost of $600, paid $350; Johnstown, improvements, $200; Loveland, $43; Lyons, $75; Platteville, $225 and piano $150; Sedgwick $300 for debts and $350 for piano; Walden, $75; Yuma, $561 on debt and $125 on improvements; Wiggins, $550 on church debt; Otis and Kersey cleared up church debts.

New Buildings.—Two new building enterprises are under way. At Windsor the old building is being razed and upon the same site, the choicest in town, a new and majestic building will be erected, the contract price for which is $17,000. R. N. Smith is the successful pastor.

Ft. Lupton has had a year of unprecedented growth and will be marked as a building epoch. Centrally located lots have been secured, and R. R. Adams has $10,000 on subscription. Plans are accepted and contract about to be let.

Dedications.—The third Sunday after Conference we dedicated the remodeled, enlarged and modernly equipped church at Ft. Collins. T. C. Iliff preached and raised $6,000, which covered all indebtedness. The church is a model of beauty and perfect adaptation to every need of the church. The church at Brush was badly damaged by fire. This misfortune proved an opportunity to secure larger facilities that were needed, and accordingly it was remodeled and enlarged with basement under entire church. H. F. Rall preached and managed finances; afterward the church was dedicated by the superintendent. R. H. Ayers has preached at Willard, held a revival, organized a class and built a church costing $2,500. In June it was dedicated by R. H. Ayers and the superintendent, with all obligations provided for. We dedicated another church in June, a country church, nine miles west of Longmont, formerly known as Altona, but was incorporated by the name of "Grace." H. F. Rall officiated, O. G. Konkel is the pastor. The fifth dedication during the year was a basement church. E. E. Tuck carried the enterprise through and paid all claims but $150. B. T. Vincent preached and performed the dedicatory service. It is an adequate and comfortable place of worship. One new parsonage has been built, which is a thing of beauty and a joy to the heart of T. B. Tyre. It is of unique bungalow design, seven rooms, basement and sleeping porches, heating and lighting plants and all modern appointments. Value is $3,000, and all paid but $300.

Some Extracts from the Superintendent's Memoranda.—Atwood and Merino will be divided, making two appointments. Boulder makes an advance of $400 in benevolences. Brighton is dry for the first time in its history. Eaton has full prayer meetings, Junior League cultivates a garden, the pastor's wife's class pays all electric light bills, 10 per cent increase in membership. Evans has a few faithful souls that will wear a crown, $134 for benevolence on a $300 salary. Greeley ranks first in number of grade points, salary increased $250. Hillrose and Snyder were served eleven months by Fred W. Mathews and then he was not, for a very impolite district superintendent took him. We are thankful that we still have the charge. Jamestown is a home mission field, a good place to initiate theological student preachers. The coming of the second church into Kersey was an ecclesiastical crime. Loveland has a steady, normal growth, has a fine body of young people and sends eleven students to the University. Pierce asks for the return of J. F. Coffman for the sixth year. Platteville begins to feel the lift of a rising tide. Sterling has increased in membership 25 per cent. Walden means North Park, and is a kingdom by itself, where ours is the only church. The Ladies' Aid Society at Wray has erected tomb stones at the graves of two children of former pastors that rest there. I have not encouraged petitions. They usually indicate a division or some opposition to the return of the pastor and are not trustworthy evidence for determining an appointment. It was said of a certain man that a petition could be gotten either for his return or to hang him.

The year's work is closed and as it is reviewed by the Master may it bring the "Well done, faithful servants!" It is not required that we shall have had great results, but it is required that we shall be found faithful. Faithful in the training of children, in the leading of souls to Christ and in the shepherding of the flock committed to our charge so that we shall not lose any of the precious souls for whom we are responsible. Thankful for journeying mercies, I submit my fifth report.

PUEBLO DISTRICT.

A year of great things; great crops; great war at Trinidad; great revival at Rocky Ford; great campaign for Christian education; and great church building at La Junta.

We began with a campaign of education as to the Benevolent causes. Two Schools of Methods on the "New Financial Plan" were conducted at Monte Vista and Fowler. Every pastor had a chance to express himself on some vital phase thereof. Chancellor Buchtel and Agent J. F. Harris efficiently helped, as did Howard Goldie.

Our reports show the wisdom and efficiency of these meetings. This territory has advanced its benevolences since 1910 from $1.02 to $1.60 per member; last year advancing over 54 per cent. Nor are we falling below the average advance in this distressing year. And simultaneously has successfully gone on the University of Denver Endowment, having twenty thousand dollars in sight. Perfect heroism was exhibited in this campaign by many pastors and distinguished laymen, and the same will continue to the end.

The greatest church building project in the district and Conference is this at La Junta. With none really wealthy, their wealth of spirit and determination appears in this great achievement. The Brotherhood, the Ladies' Aid, the Official Board, the ever watchful pastor, and the honorable contractors have all conspired to produce this superb plant for Christian work.

Las Animas and C. H. Inman have enlarged and improved their church at a cost of $3,500. Hasty, under J. T. Knucky, has ready for dedication a beautiful stone church at a cost of $3,500.

Improvements at Fowler, Ordway, Del Norte and Sugar City deserve mention. That at Northern avenue, Pueblo, under J. R. Edwards, the circumstances considered, is very notable, as well as the encouragement of the membership. The improvements at St. Paul, within and without, at a cost of $2,500, show the taste and workmanship of G. M. Henderson.

Four parsonages add to the comfort of pastor and efficiency of his work. That at Bristol is due largely to Fred H. Zimmerman, as is that new circuit. Aguilar, in spite of strike and war so loved Pastor James McDonald as to launch a parsonage, many of the miners on both sides giving aid in putting up the best house in the town. Pastor McDonald so sought to be perfectly fair to each and all as to command their respect, doubtless saving many lives, and I thank him for his wise and helpful service.

When the Retired W. S. Grim undertook to fill out the year of C. E. Mioler, transferred from Fowler, he there found well under way a parsonage, which in a royal way he led the people in completing, at a cost of $3,000. Alas, his health has failed again, and he seeks a lower altitude in Oregon.

Our people of Ordway and Pastor Barker have completed a fine parsonage, which, with central location and fine lawns, delight the citizens of the place.

Debts have been reduced or extinguished as follows: Trinidad, $9,000; Manzanola, $1,500; Lamar, $1,500; Vineland, $400. These figures tell nothing of the planning and generalship and sacrifice that brought them to pass.

Personal evangelism and child-training go hand-in-hand with revivals. The outstanding revival of the year was that at Rocky Ford—the union meeting under Hart and McGahn. On the first Sunday after the six weeks' meeting closed all the people eager to join our church were unable to find admission to the building. The service was of three hours' duration, and, aside from a brief address by the pastor, was consumed in baptizing and receiving new members. One hundred and five were baptized by sprinkling and eighteen by immersion, we having a baptistry, as every large church should have, to be true to our profession. Pastor Warner received in all about 300, and has a glowing report in all respects.

In Pueblo the union meetings were in the four sections of the city, conducted by pastors in turn. About 300 joined our four churches; all our pastors being fine leaders in the entire work.

Monte Vista has just closed a union revival meeting of remarkable power. Our church received fifty-three additions the first Sunday, and had prospects of more. N. H. Lee has had a notable year, introducing the new financial plan in such a way as to double the number of contributors to support and benevolences.

Fred H. Zimmermann had two good meetings—at Bristol and at Hartman. Fred J. Johnson has a ten-point circuit and has driven 500 miles every month to fill his appointments. He had four revivals and saw over seventy confess the Lord.

A tent meeting at McClave, a new circuit, led by evangelists, assisted by J. A. Large and Miss Reva Owen, resulted in forty conversions and the organization of a church, which will be joined with Hasty.

A meeting at Swink in which Pastor J. Martin was assisted by John Stille was successful. Pastor Martin also organized a church at Timpas, with conversions in the regular services. During the year he has received 69 members, and paid off $300 on debts and improvements.

Pastor Thurlow, at Center, has added about 40 to the church, closing a substantial year. After the death of Pastor G. F. Brock of Holly Frank Whiting had charge, having a good meeting.

Pastor E. G. W. Estlow was assisted by R. E. Bird in a fine meeting. Owing to impaired health he will take a rest.

At Vineland Pastor Wilkinson had a meeting of power. Received 43 probationers.

Our Pastor at Blanca and Mosca, F. W. Beidler, comes to us from the Presbyterians, but he holds revivals like an old-time Methodist. His work at both points is of a very high order.

Another very useful man who comes to us on recognition of orders is J. E. Mumford of Eads. He has held some very successful meetings both in town and at points in the country. He comes to us from the Baptists, and is a worthy representative of that great body of Christians.

W. H. Calfee of Sugar City held his own meetings. He is a specialist with boys and through them and his active pastoral work he has a large following in Sugar City.

G. A. Dittmar, at Granada, was assisted by Evangelist John Stille of Sugar City. They had a good meeting and a number of conversions, especially among the children. Granada has been strengthened this year, and Brother Dittmar has done a good work in opening some new points.

Goodpasture was served this year by C. S. Embree, who also served Beulah for the Southern Methodists. This is a unique arrangement, and Brother Embree is probably the only pastor who was entitled to eight quarterly meetings.

We name here some other pastors, who for good reasons were not able to have any set revival this year. F. W. Pimlott did not reach Alamosa till the year was half over, but he has seen the church take on new life through his diligent pastoral work and winning services. He is a winner and will be heard from in the future. G. G. Saywell went from Alamosa in the middle of the year, and, though he did not get to the regular revival, he saw a good growth in the Sunday School and also a good increase in the congregations. Some fine church improvements also add to the success of the year. There is no better pastoral work done anywhere than that done by W. E. Morris at Sheridan Lake. He literally finds all the homes in that sparsely settled region and with prayer in the homes and kind words and instruction for the children and encouragement for the sorrowing and unfortunate he leaves an impression of Christ-likeness that is never forgotten.

Emmet Tedford, though working hard to support a sick brother and his family, undertook the work at Olney Springs in the latter part of the year. He succeeded well and the death of his brother, which came a few days ago, leaves him free to devote his whole time to the work this year.

Under the leadership of A. W. Hall, our pastor to the foreign peoples in Pueblo, our city mission work has reached its highest efficiency. Two missions are now maintained. One, in what is known as "the Grove," is conducted by Miss Lelia Barnes, while Miss Rena Stevenson continues to work in the old Pine Street Mission. Pastor Hall, with the help of these two deaconesses, is reaching more of these people than ever before. Along with the social service work, which they have always done so helpfully, they are stressing more than ever the evangelistic feature of the work and there have been many bright conversions this year. A church is now organized and self-support is beginning to develop in a fine way. Our great need is an up-to-date mission plant of our own and plans are under way to secure it in the near future.

In this connection we mention our McClelland Orphanage at Pueblo. This institution, owned and controlled by a board of twenty-eight trustees, fifteen of whom the charter provides must always be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Pueblo, comes properly under our supervision. Liberally supported by the members of the various Protestant denominations and also by many outside friends, it meets all its bills promptly, including about $6,000 running expenses, and this year $2,500 improvements, which has enlarged its capacity to eighty, whereas we have only been able to care for about sixty in the past. Miss Anna Burgess, who has served as its matron during the ten years of its history, is just now taking a few months' vacation while Miss Julia Nye is serving as acting matron. These deaconesses are serving well their Lord, as they serve so well these "little ones that believe in Him."

Three of our parsonage homes have been saddened by death this year. Brother G. F. Brock started the work at Holly under very promising circumstances, but soon became unable to work, and after a sickness of some months, died at Beth-El Hospital, Colorado Springs. We as a Conference are indebted to that institution and Dr. Walter Morritt for the splendid care they so kindly gave our Brother Brock, for which they would receive no pay, although the place was crowded at the time. Many of us sadly miss this good friend and brother at this session of the Conference, and we are sure his good wife has the deep sympathy of us all. St. Paul Church, Pueblo, has been saddened by the death of Sister Henderson, wife of G. M. Henderson, their pastor. Brother Henderson is comparatively a new man among us, but he will not fail, for we are sure he is to have the prayers and tender regard of all the brethren in the Conference. The angels came and took away the newly born babe from the home of Brother and Sister Estlow. They, too, with these other sorrowing friends, must know how to find comfort in Him who loved the children and took them in His arms and blessed them.

Farewell to the months and days and scenes and services of the year! Delightful is the memory and high the appreciation of the rest and hospitality afforded us in the homes of both pastors and people. The year may pass and much of its toil may be forgotten, but never the love we have for the precious flock of Christ we have tried to serve. This at least must be immortal.

HENRY M. MAYO.

VIII. Reports Adopted by Conference

From Boards, Societies, Standing Committees

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

EDUCATION.

The University of Denver.

The committee on education recommend that the Conference pledge $30,000 to the Endowment Fund—to be paid during four years—and that one-fourth of this amount be apportioned to the churches each year for four years; and, furthermore, that there be apportioned to the churches in addition to this whatever amount may be necessary to pay the Board of Education. The committee also recommend to the Conference that the amount paid by each church in meeting the above-named apportionment be reported separately from the amount paid by individual givers to the Endowment Fund, and that the Chancellor and district superintendents devise the method of reporting in accordance herewith.

The Colorado Conference notes with profound thankfulness that the pledges on endowment account, to meet the conditions of the proposed gift of the General Education Board, had reached the total sum of $250,000 at the opening of this Conference session. To this the Conference has now added a pledge of $30,000, to be paid through the public educational collections during the ensuing four years, making the aggregate of pledges now in hand $280,000, leaving a balance of $120,000 to be secured in pledges by the 31st day of October. With less than seven weeks in which to complete this gigantic task, our situation is sufficiently serious to stir the blood of every minister and every worth-while member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Colorado. While we rejoice over the notable accomplishments of the past year, yet we must recognize that we now face the critical moment when the complete success of our campaign counts for more than we can say in words and when failure would be an unspeakable disaster.

We therefore call upon our people in every charge to rally to the support of the whirlwind campaign which will be conducted in each district of the Conference under the direction of the district superintendent. We ask our people to join us in constant prayers and in ceaseless labors in soliciting pledges and in the collection of money until we shall have come out forever from the wilderness of debt and deficit in which we have wandered for fifty years in the maintenance of our church school in Colorado.

Iliff School of Theology.

Appreciating the honor of having a theological school of such high standard as Iliff within the bounds of our own Conference, and assured that in spite of its youth it is not excelled anywhere, we wish to urge all the young men of the Colorado Conference to investigate carefully its ability to meet their intellectual desires before going elsewhere. The attendance during the past year was forty—larger than at any previous time in the history of the school. The prospects for the new year indicate a considerable increase over this number. The second class of five members was graduated this year. Next year's class will be probably twice that size.

The members of the faculty have been abundant in labors outside as well as within the class room, and have aided the work of the church in the city and state, and even beyond Colorado's borders.

During the past summer they have given courses at fifteen Conferences, institutes and summer schools. President Rall's book on "A Living Faith," a modern work on theology, appeared this fall. He has also written a volume on New Testament History, which appears this month.

The Epworth League has asked Prof. Lowstuter to prepare its text in Bible study for next year.

We would call particular attention to the large emphasis this scholarly company of men place upon a practical training, looking to the thorough preparation of men for the work of the church today.

Finally, the committee recommend that if for personal reasons any of our men plan to go elsewhere for their theological training, they enroll in our church schools, Garrett, Drew or Boston.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Great issues hang in the balance of the world. Events, seemingly trivial, may be pivotal, and, turning the tide of human liberties backward, may change the course of the world's history for all time. With the continent of Europe convulsed in a war which affects directly or indirectly every nation under heaven, expressing the crudest of political ideas and the darkest passions of the human heart; and with a world-wide social unrest that has expressed itself on two continents in violence and bloodshed, it behooves the Church of Christ everywhere to humble herself in the dust, that in the midst of these scenes of woeful disorder the form of the Son of God may be seen not only ministering to the needy, but also bringing about a reign of peace and prosperity. By the right of our providential beginnings and singularly divine history as the church of the masses—the church for all alike—we feel the responsibility devolving upon us, and feeling the responsibility we call upon all Christian people everywhere by our example and devotion to the cause, to secure universal peace and social rest and content through the preaching of that Gospel of the Kingdom which is eventually to triumph in beating the sword into plough-share and spear into pruning-hook. We urge that our faith in the mighty God fail not, that the Christ as the world's savior be held up in the pulpit, home, and street, till His power sway men's hearts with peace and Christian love.

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION.

The most servious social question confronting our state during the past year has been the coal strike situation. It is not our task to apportion blame for these conditions. That can be left to the careful investigation of the United States Industrial Relations Commission. Nevertheless, it is the duty of the Christian Church to assert those principles of the religion of Christ which bear upon this matter. We must not condemn Europe's war and be silent about our own.

1. We oppose all lawlessness. We condemn the use of violence by corporations and labor organizations alike. The rights of labor must be secured by organization, by the appeal to public opinion and by the ballot. The corporations must not evade or defy the laws of the state for the control of industry, or deny to labor its legal and moral right to organize.

2. The state must assume its full responsibility for the enforcement of law and preservation of order. Beyond the strict limits of self-defense in life or property no private organization or corporation should be allowed to take to itself this function. All classes should support the officers of the state and its militia when this is needed. The humblest man, however, should be secure in his constitutional rights, and the militia should aim at rigid impartiality. To this end, no company should ever be enlisted by the state from among the ranks of the members or employes of either side engaged in conflict.

3. We reassert the principles of conciliation and arbitration which the church has repeatedly set forth. Both sides to the controversy should stand ready for conference or for any fair plan of arbitration. The rights of each party and of the public (which is the great third party in such cases) demand this. We call especial attention to the Canadian Industrial Disputes Act, which provides for investigation and efforts at conciliation before strike or lockout can be declared. Such preliminary investigation and conference are far more fruitful than those which come after passions have been inflamed by strife and violence.

4. For the immediate settlement of our present conditions, we urge upon miners and operators the acceptance of the three-years' truce as proposed by President Wilson.

5. We believe in the organization of labor and the principle of collective bargaining, that the men who toil shall have the right to choose their representatives, and through these to help determine wages and conditions of labor. With the Federal Council of Churches, of which we are a part, we believe in "the right of employes and employers alike to organize." And we reassert the position of our last General Conference: "The principle of democracy is essential to the Christian conception of man and of society. The autocratic control of industry by any group of men without regard to the rights, either of other groups who contribute to the industrial process, or of the public, is therefore contrary to Christian standards. The immediate application, in every industry, of the principle of collective bargaining, is not only essential to the protection of the modern industrial worker, but is the first step toward that co-operative control of both the process and proceeds of industry, which will be the ultimate expression of Christianity in industrial relationship."

6. We recommend to our pastors that they read to their congregations the declaration of our last General Conference, stating the position of the Church upon social questions. A pamphlet containing this can be secured from the Methodist Federation for Social Service, at 2512 Park Place, Evanston, Illinois.

7. Resolved further, that copies of this statement be sent to the Governor of Colorado, the coal operators and the officials of the United Mine Workers.

DAVID D. FORSYTH,
ORRIN W. AUMAN,

Commission of Social Service.

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION.

We look upon Colorado—the Sanatorium and Resort of the Republic—as a most hopeful field for the wise use of money for Home Missions and Church Extension. Our mining camps, growing towns and cities, broad acres of dry and irrigated farming settlements, call for speedy help. Perhaps in no part of the country will there be quicker returns for missionary money invested. Work is needed among the Japanese, Mexicans, Italians and neglected American populations at once. The same is true of the South, the great Northwest and Southwest, and the great social and commercial centers of our Republic. The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has donated from the beginning of the Colorado Conference $70,046, which is $29,358 more than that Conference has contributed during that period to the board. Our offerings for 1913 fell short of what we received by $4,927. We accordingly urge our Conference to present the claims of Home Missions and Church Extension by preaching, literature, effective financial plan and personal appeal, to raise the full amount asked, believing there is no call which finds a more ready response from our people.

A. J. WALLER, Chairman.
JOSIAH MARTIN, Secretary.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Your committee would call attention to the great door of opportunity which seems just now ready to open before our church in foreign fields.

America appears just now to be the throne of the Prince of Peace in this world, from which He shall direct the visible forces operating to bring the kingdoms of this world to be the "kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ." In view of all the present facts and indications we would exhort to the utmost alertness and the most perfect and constant preparedness to take instant advantage of every opportunity that shall present itself for obedience to Christ as He shall call the Methodist Episcopal Church to His work in foreign fields.

G. A. CAGE.
W. D. WALLER.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sunday Schools of America face the greatest opportunity of their history. The church must seek not merely to recruit boys and girls for her ranks, but to develop them until they are capable of taking responsibility in the leadership of the church and such welfare movements as the church expects to promote. In the effort to improve the work of a local school nothing can be more important than a definite plan to secure capable teachers. The Teacher Training Courses now being offered by our Board of Sunday Schools are so interesting and practical that there seems to be no reason why every school cannot have at least one teacher training class meeting at the Sunday School hour, while many schools can have this and other teacher training classes as well. We recommend the International Graded Lessons. Wherever it is possible we recommend that these lessons as published by our denomination be used. We record with pleasure the movement of the Colorado State Sunday School Association by which they have secured the recognition of the Bible study work of the Sunday School in giving credit in the teacher's college and high schools.

We recognize, as stated by Dr. Blake, that the time has arrived when the emphasis must be placed on the intensive feature of this great work, rather than the extensive. We recommend that our pastors and people give to the board the largest possible financial support and co-operation.

We appreciate the work of Dr. George S. Parker as Conference Sunday School Missionary, and note that of the 1,700 Sunday Schools established during the last six years 130 of these were planted within the bounds of our own Colorado Conference.

C. H. INMAN, Chairman.

GEORGE R. McDOWELL, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

"Efficiency" is the watchword of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and "Christ for every life and for all of life," its slogan. The Colorado Conference has Miss Chilson from Pueblo, Miss Edna Lee of Denver, and Miss Porter of Longmont, in active service in India and Japan. Miss Mathilda Moses of Alamosa goes out in 1915. Nearly $7,500 has been raised for the year's apportionment in the Conference, and several young women have this year given what is more priceless than money—their decision to give to God the "first fruit"—their own lives. Every church, to be complete in its work, should have a W. F. M. auxiliary, and thus receive for itself the reflex influence of absolute trust in obedience to God's call—"Go ye into all the world!"

AUSTIN N. CHAPMAN, Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS APPRECIATORY.

At the close of a very successful session we desire to express our most cordial appreciation—

To the City of La Junta for its general welcome and entertainment;

To Pastor Goldie and his people for their thoughtful and gracious hospitality;

To the remarkably efficient Ladies' Aid Society for their kindness in contributing to the comfort of the Conference, and especially to our Veterans;

To the sister churches for their courtesies;

To the La Junta press for their excellent reports;

To Bishop Hughes for his presidency, and for his inspiring sermon, helpful, thoughtful and spiritual addresses;

To those of our own number who have borne and are to bear special burdens connected with the Conference work.

THOMAS C. COLLISTER, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We wish to congratulate the Epworth League for what it has accomplished in the past. Also, to express our appreciation of the address given by Dr. Chesteen Smith, and to recommend that our pastors occasionally present from their pulpits the value of the League and its work. We commend the plan of the General Secretary and Board of control which relates to institute work and urge all chapters of the League to avail themselves of the benefits of these institutes. We urge the continued support of our efficient foreign missionary, Mr. J. H. Gard.

We urge the co-operation of every pastor in making the League a social, intellectual and spiritual center for the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

ROSCOE S. FAIRCHILD, Chairman.

JOHN R. EDWARDS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

We rejoice in the continued progress in our efforts to put away from our state and nation the death-dealing, poverty and criminal-making institution—the saloon. We commend the Anti-Saloon League, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Prohibition party, and all the church temperance societies of the various denominations, for their united and determined efforts to rid our state of the liquor curse. We commend Clarence True Wilson, secretary of our Church Temperance Society, for his efforts to carry out a vigorous campaign during the last six weeks before election. We urge a more careful and continuous teaching of the evils of intemperance to our youth in the Sunday Schools and the public schools. As a church, we stand for the speediest suppression of the liquor traffic in Colorado and the United States of America, thanking most heartily all those in official position who have helped, and shall help, in this abolition. In the language of the Temperance Demonstration at Washington: "With the help of God we will see this thing through."

M. D. HORNBECK, Chairman.

JOHN R. EDWARDS, Secretary.

BETH-EL HOSPITAL.

The year just closed has broken all previous records as to number of patients, number of operations, and of cash receipts from patients. The Hospital has been crowded all summer, and patients have been turned away. More patients by 210 were cared for, and more operations by 144 performed, than in any previous year; the actual figures being 1,037 patients and 543 operations, and $5 000 worth of free service rendered. The total cash receipts from patients and contributions have been $39,702. New equipment has been added; the grounds beautified, and other improvements made. We urge (1) that this Conference rally loyally to the support of this Hospital; (2) that the Sunday before Thanksgiving Day, or as close thereto as possible, be set apart as Hospital Sunday, and observed—the Offering to be for this—Beth-El Hospital; (3) that our charges send supplies of linens, groceries, fruit, vegetables, jellies and grape juice as often as possible, as such supplies are as good as cash to the Hospital; (4) that the physicians and surgeons in the smaller towns without hospitals be encouraged to send their patients to Beth-El Hospital, Colorado Springs; (5) that people be encouraged to remember Beth-El Hospital in their wills; (6) that our Conference Hospital Committee be enlarged, and be made to include such a number of the Pikes Peak men that they can meet for work during the year.

F. W. IMBODEN, Chairman.

J. W. MAHOOD, Secretary.

DEACONESS BOARD.

The following deaconesses were granted renewal of license: Julia Nye, Anna Burgess, Lelia Barnes, Anna Gerkin, Reva Owen, Rena Stevenson, Mabel C. Leitch, Louise Swickheimer, Laura H. Gamble, Lida C. Manning, Rhoda E. Sigler, Irene Cummings, Mabel BeVier, Ethel Harris.

The recommendation of Catherine Risinger for license and consecration as a deaconess was approved by the board, and she was consecrated by Bishop Hughes.

Lelia Barnes was transferred from the jurisdiction of the Deaconess Board of the New England Southern Annual Conference to the jurisdiction of the Deaconess Board of the Colorado Conference.

The transfer of Tennie Sevidson to the jurisdiction of the Deaconess Board of the West Ohio Conference was approved.

Margaret Evans Deaconess Home.

The annual report of Isabel C. Leitch, superintendent, shows a year of faithful and successful effort in many departments of work. The service rendered at the Italian Mission and at the Deaconess Settlement deserves special mention. Miss BeVier after giving six months service as field worker has returned to Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Leitch has resigned her position as superintendent and Mrs. Margaret Delight Moors has been secured for the place. Mrs. Moors is an experienced worker from Detroit, Mich.

The McClelland Orphanage.

Miss Burgess, the superintendent of this worthy institution, reports a year of strenuous labors in the care of from thirty to sixty children. Important improvements have been added to the building, such as sleeping porches and fire escapes. The cost of these improvements and all current expenses have been fully met. It has been difficult during the past year to secure enough deaconesses to carry on this important work.

The Pueblo Deaconess Home.

The report of Superintendent Rena W. Stevenson shows that this institution has done a large amount of work with a small amount of money. The deaconesses connected with this Home have labored chiefly among foreigners. Industrial classes of various kinds for adults and children, boys' clubs, a class for men in a mission Sunday School and a class for mothers, have been successfully carried on. The workers in this Home would be glad to receive from the surrounding churches donations of fruits, vegetables and canned goods as well as money.

A. C. PECK, President.
FROST CRAFT, Secretary.

THE SALVATION OF THE LITTLE CHILD.

The purpose of the Conference in 1910 in relation to this movement is within sight of realization; but a renewal of the Board of Control is necessary to its completion. It is therefore desired and moved that O. W. Auman and G. S. Parker be re-elected, and that C. W. Huett be elected to fill the place of W. D. Phifer, retired.

THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Conference notes with pleasure the receipt of the Annual Report of the Treasurer, called for by the Discipline. While the same shows large failure in large Conferences to raise in full and to pro-rate deficiencies, the Colorado Conference raised last year 88 per cent of its apportionment. Our apportionment for 1915 is $3,161. It is the law that wherever a charge cannot raise its apportionment for the bishops in full the deficiency must be shared by the other classes of the ministers supported, and also that as far as possible this amount shall be raised and sent in quarterly installments.

J. ALBERT DEAN, Chairman.
J. E. BRYAN, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Sabbath was made for man, and his need of the day for worship and rest was never greater than now. The obligation rests upon the ministers of the Gospel to lead the fight for the recovery of the day, where lost, and the preservation of it where it is in danger from the pursuits of pleasure and gain. Therefore, we recommend that everywhere we urge both by precept and example that our people "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy."

G. A. SPENCE, Chairman.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

It is with pleasure that we point to the splendid literary style and the spirituality of the publications of our Book Concern. We rejoice in the opportunities afforded us as pastors to recommend the greater use of our own periodicals on the part of our people. We appreciate the need of a high quality of literature and urge the members of our Conference to promote the dissemination of our church publications and in purchasing books to secure them from our Book Concern, unless they cannot be had from it. While we rejoice in the added subscriptions to our Central Christian Advocate, we are alarmed at its continued failure to sustain itself financially. We cannot but feel that this is due in a measure to our failure to further its subscriptions.

We call attention to the increasing dividends which have accrued to our Conference Claimants from our Book Concern as a result of its added prosperity, and would suggest that we be diligent in presenting to our Methodist public the benevolent character of this institution.

We also recommend that the interests of the Epworth Herald be placed before our young people, and that our Sunday School publications be used exclusively in our Sunday Schools.

GEORGE F. KLEIN, Chairman.

JOHN M. ELDRIDGE, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We have examined the records of the District Conferences and find them correct. This is with the exception of the Pueblo District Record, which was not brought to Conference.

ROY L. SMITH.

D. C. WINSHIP.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We recognize the fine work done by the American Bible Society in the distribution of five and a quarter million copies of the Scriptures last year. The society has been a great help to Colorado Methodism in furnishing the Scriptures in the various languages of the residents of Colorado at extremely low cost, and free of all charge where conditions justify. We regret that the society has suffered so great decrease in offerings and general gifts last year as to make it necessary to reduce its appropriations this year. We believe that the plan in operation is fair and equitable and pledge a conscientious effort in raising the amount apportioned to our charges.

We approve the plan of the society to celebrate its centennial in 1916 and pledge our Conference to co-operate as far as possible.

J. A. LARGE, Chairman.

J. L. FLYNN, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

We note with satisfaction the interest of our people in the work of this society as evidenced by the continued support given to it.

The address of the Rev. Spurgeon D. Davis of Colorado Springs was much appreciated, and was in itself a splendid object lesson of the work of the Freedmen's Aid Schools.

We recommend that the Sunday nearest Lincoln's birthday be observed as Freedmen's Aid Society Day and that this cause be intelligently presented to our people and an offering taken.

S. G. DOREY, Chairman.

JOHN M. ELDRIDGE, Secretary.

THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The work of this splendid organization has become so well known as scarcely to need description, but it is our privilege to record its advances.

Its membership in Colorado has increased by one hundred and seventy, while its total receipts for the year ending July 1 were $67,019, nearly 50 per cent increase on last year's income. Of this sum $35,332 was received from patients of the Beth-El Hospital at Colorado Springs; the balance has been drawn from many sources and expended in the other lines of work in which the society is engaged, especially among the foreign immigrants.

It is plain that the service of this body is only limited by the supply of workers and means; and we gladly commend it to the sisters who are free to enter into it as deaconesses or as helpers in other ways, and to all our people for gifts, supplies of food and clothing, and the support of their prayers.

WALTER MORRITT, Chairman.

JOHN OLIVER, Secretary.

THE METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

The Methodist Brotherhood has shown its ability to render very valuable service to the church, to the community and to the commonwealth. Its success is assured whenever it is given effective leadership. It gives the pastor great opportunity to keep in close touch with the laymen of his church.

Your committee would suggest a three-fold field of service. First, it may give active, aggressive and vigorous service in the social and civic interest of the community. Second, the Brotherhood might also be encouraged to render valuable evangelistic service. Third, it might provide schools of instruction for the church membership as well as lectures on church efficiency.

We suggest also that the local chapters federate with the state organization. Even greater service might be rendered if it were possible to federate with the brotherhoods of other denominations.

A Brotherhood of such promise and power should receive the encouragement of every pastor.

R. L. NUCKOLLS, Chairman.

A. O. AMUNDSON, Secretary.

AUDITING.

We have audited the Home Mission accounts of C. O. Thibodeau and find them correct. We find the account of Guy E. Konkel, "Fare Equalizer," correct. We have examined the accounts of the Conference Minutes' Treasurer and report them correct.

T. B. TYRE.

PRORATING PROGRESS IN COLORADO CONFERENCE.

Twenty-five Annual Conferences are on the Honor Roll for paying every claim for all Ministerial Support, or lawfully prorating every deficiency. To that Honor Roll the members of those Conferences point with pride. Not there is the Colorado Conference.

Outside those honored Conferences there were seventy-eight districts that deserved the same honor, and are so enrolled. Conspicuously absent from this list is every district of the Colorado Conference. In whole and in part we are without honor.

All this leaves much to be desired. We are convinced that many stewards are ignorant of the law because uninstructed by their pastors in the ethics of the matter:— "The Recording Steward shall pay over the money collected, under the direction of the Stewards, to the Ministers authorized to receive them."—Discipline as to Stewards.

"The moneys raised for Ministerial Support shall be applied PRO RATA to these several claims on the basis of the authorized apportionment for each."—Disc. 1912, 315.

Quarterly Conferences four times a year make and record answer to Question 13: "HAVE the directions of the Discipline for the support of Conference Claimants BEEN CARRIED out, and HAS the PRO RATA division BEEN MADE?"

"The law of the Church in regard to the PRO RATA division of the amounts raised for Ministerial Support is binding, and it is incumbent on the pastors and District Superintendents to see that such PRO RATA division is made."—General Conference Journal, 1912.

SUMMARY OF THE RULES OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINATION.

(Undergraduates will please study these rules carefully.)

(A)—Candidates for Admission on Trial.

Candidates for Admission on Trial may take examinations during the year, on recommendation of their District Superintendent, under Supervisors properly appointed.

(B)—Those in the Regular Course.

1. Examinations shall be quarterly, on the last Tuesday in October, January, April and July. The figures (1), etc., following the title of the book in the printed schedule, indicate to which quarterly examination that particular book has been assigned.

2. No undergraduate shall be entitled to advanced classification who is delinquent or has failed to pass, in two (2) books to be studied, or three (3) books to be read, or in one (1) book to be studied and two (2) to be read. For either admission on trial, or in full, and for ordination as Elder, the law permits no "conditions" whatever.

3. Upon the complete and careful reading of each book to be read, the undergraduate shall certify that fact to the registrar.

Miscellaneous.

2. All persons working in Mission Conferences, who are seeking admission on trial or are pursuing the course of study under the auspices of this Conference, shall be required to pass the examinations submitted by the Conference Board before they shall be admitted on trial or advanced in the year's studies, unless the examination is in course in a foreign language.

3. All candidates for admission on trial and all undergraduates who have not completed their examinations shall meet the examining board at the seat of Conference the day before the session opens, to close the work of the year.

4. The examining board shall not be required to give any examination or to examine or report on any written sermon or essay after the opening of the Conference session, except at the option of the Board on satisfactory reason for not appearing within the time above specified.

IX. Financial Reports

REPORT OF STEWARDS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The increased Book Concern dividend and receipts from the Charges for the Ministerial Support of Conference Claimants, with but a small increase in the Annuity Years, enable us to increase the payable Annuity from the $7 of last year to $7.50. This might have been at least $8, had the apportionment been fairly met of the $9,000 apportioned at last Conference; only $7,883 being received, leaving a shortage of $1,117. With only the same amount apportioned for the coming year, this deficit should be greatly reduced.

We are thankful to those who relinquished their Disciplinary Annuity Claims, as follows:

In accordance with Conference action and Relinquishers' request, this amount of $970 has been placed in the Conference Permanent Fund, subject to yearly interest charges, if needed in future by the relinquisher or dependent no longer able to relinquish.

It is gratefully noted that an increasing number of thrifty Charges are pro-rating quarterly all the Receipts for Ministerial Support, and are forwarding the part belonging to Conference Claimants to John Collins, Secretary, before Conference most loyally. Following is some recent history of such remittance:

|             |   |             |    |             |     |

| 1907.....   | 3 | 1911.....   | 0  | 1915.....   | ?   |

By way of encouragement the Conference should know the progress made in the Receipts for the Ministerial Support of Conference Claimants under a Law—

| Having no teeth at all. | Having a few teeth. | Having more teeth. |
|-------------------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| 1904.....$ 2565        | 1908.....$ 4547    | 1912.....$ 7796   |

| 1907..... 3581          | 1911..... 8342      | 1915..... ?        |

After the next General Conference, when the law shall have cut its final wisdom teeth, both jaws will have full sets of teeth in prime working order, ready for such business as the Fathers planned and performed a century ago.

Furthermore, the Conference should note the favorable way in which, and the rapidity with which, in accordance with the recently amended Constitution, the Jubilee Fund is slackening its growth; the number of Jubilee Members is decreasing; the number of those being benefited is increasing; all in preparation for the turning of this Jubilee Fund over ultimately for the benefit of ALL Colorado Conference Claimants; as well as the growth of the new Conference Permanent Fund by leaps and bounds, to-wit:

|  | 1910    | 1914    |

| Number of Jubilee Members enrolled at reorganization.          | 86      | 71      |

| Grand Total of Preachers' Aid Invested Funds.....              | 32696   | 39300   |

Therefrom it appears how exactly and scrupulously the formerly-constituted Preachers' Aid Society has kept, and is keeping, its part of the contract with the Conference, in spite of the fact that never once has the Conference half kept its corresponding part of the Contract and Compact, to-wit: TO APPORTION TO THE CHARGES TO BE RAISED ALL NECESSARY TO PAY THE FULL MINIMUM DISCIPLINARY ANNUITIES.

Our less than $40,000 leaves more than $20,000 short of the $60,000 we voted to raise by 1916. There are extraordinary reasons why we may expect greatly increased demands upon us in the not distant future, making necessary this increase of invested funds. Yet 193 charges in our Conference gave nothing last year to Annual Conference Investments.

We have acted in accordance with the Conference resolution to pay Annuities quarterly in advance, except that for the present year we paid necessitous allowances in full at once, and borrowed an amount sufficient to pay the Jubilee Members' claims for the entire year, the same to be repaid from the profits as received.

All remittances for use in Colorado, whether on account of Conference Claimants Apportionment, for Permanent Investment, or for local relief, should be sent to John Collins, Secretary, 2224 S. Ogden St., Denver, Colo.

It should be particularly noticed that—

(1) The Conference apportionment to the Charges is NOT A BENEVOLENCE, but a pro-rata SHARE OF THE MINISTERIAL SUPPORT TO BE RAISED BY THE STEWARDS AS SUCH, and to be reported at Conference and entered on the Treasurer's Blank at No. 23.

(2) All other Conference Claimants' funds for use in our Conference, whether collected for permanent investment or present relief, by the Preacher, the Agent of the Preachers' Aid Society or other authorized persons or paid in as dues by those holding special or district appointments or in any form, are reported as a Benevolence for which no apportionment is made, and should be reported at Conference under the head of Annual Conference Investments, Disciplinary Benevolence, No. 9.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF TRAVEL.

Since 1906 by Conference action upon the ministerial half-fare permit basis the lowest and most direct railway and coach fares of all Members and Probationers, and since 1910 of Supplies, working or residing within the Conference bounds, and since 1914 from the Conference bounds for those residing outside, necessary in attending Conference, except Pullmans, are equalized under the direction of the Fare Equalizer. Holders of Passes are wont to contribute their worth to the Conference good. Conference Claimants are asked to share only when their transportation is ABOVE the average.

X. Memoirs

Rezin Monroe Barns

Was born August 29, 1830, in Wooster, Ohio, and died in Denver, Colorado, June 25, 1914. Between these dates is the story of the long, laborious, useful, happy life of one of God's true men.

At thirteen our brother was left an orphan, his father having been dead nine years. He worked his way through the public schools, and, for a year, attended Asbury (now Depauw) University, was licensed as a local preacher, and, after a few years of work as a supply, in 1854 was received as a probationer in the Southeast Indiana Conference. Here he had his full share of hard circuits and rough experiences, but his zeal and courage never failed him; he worked cheerfully wherever assigned, and rose rapidly in his conference.

At the outbreak of the war of the rebellion, he was elected Chaplain of the Sixth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and accompanied his regiment to the front. Here he distinguished himself, and endeared himself to his comrades by his self-sacrificing devotion to their welfare, but his health failing he resigned his commission and returned to the work of the pastorate. Filling one important charge after another, in 1890 he was transferred to this conference and stationed at Christ Church, Denver. In 1896 he was appointed Chaplain of the Colorado State Penitentiary, which position he ably filled for several years. In 1904, because of advancing years, and glorying in a full half-century of ministerial service, he asked for and received a place in the ranks of the retired ministers. About two years ago he was disabled by the fracture of a hip, and thereafter he was confined much of the time to his chair or bed, until at last the end came and he went home.

No words of eulogy can possibly add to the record which Dr. Barns has written upon our hearts. He was a preacher of more than ordinary ability, a constant and broad-visioned student, a faithful and loving pastor, a man of affairs, and in his hands all departments of the church work were carefully and faithfully conserved. Though he kept ever in touch with the progress of events and changes of lines of thought, he was emphatically an old-fashioned Methodist preacher, believing in and preaching the distinctive doctrines of our Church, laboring for the conversion of sinners and the upbuilding of believers. Broad-minded, clear-visioned, sunny-hearted, he was an inspiration and help to all. We miss him, but we rejoice with him, and sympathize with his noble, faithful wife, who for more than half a century has patiently and lovingly shared with him the toils and privations of the itineracy and now cheerfully, gladly, unafraid, awaits her coronation and her home in the City of God.

Herschel Dewitt Seckner

The record of dates in the life of this true minister of Christ is brief; that of his faithful and fruitful service has eternal significance.

He was born in Turin, N. Y., September 6, 1852. He was converted at thirteen years of age unto an experience, the force and joy of which remained in growth throughout his whole life. He was married at Ypsilanti, Michigan, to her who has been a gracious helper to his ministry, and who, though now she mourns in bitter sorrow, is in joyful hope of glad reunion.

Brother Seckner was for a time in active business life in Portland, Michigan, and Fort Collins, Colorado. He was received on trial in the Colorado Conference in 1885; admitted into full connection, and ordained Deacon in 1887; ordained Elder in 1889; transferred to the Minnesota Conference in 1901, and back in 1906. His death occurred suddenly September 25, 1913.

His work makes a record of exceptional faithfulness. His temperament led him to misrepresent himself to his associates on early acquaintance. Straight-forward, and even bluff at times, he seemed unapproachable, and lacking sympathy. But a more intimate acquaintance proved him to be a man of intense feeling, strong sympathy, lively interest in others, and capable of the truest and staunchest friendship. He found his way into the hearts of those with whom he was associated unto charming permanence of spiritual kinship. While he seemed to guard the door of approach with indifference, if not repulsion, yet when the door opened it was to give a hearty welcome unto gracious brotherly hospitality. Thus his hold upon his parishioners was strong and enduring. They learned to know his unselfish interest in them, and his deep desire to bring benedictions upon them from the brotherly Christ whose commissioned minister he thus proved himself to be.

His pulpit work was strong. There were no "airs of eloquence" in his delivery; no patronage toward popularity in his declarations; no "frills" in his putting of what he believed to be the truth he was commanded to tell. His ministry began in the conviction that to God he owed everything, and could but meagerly repay. He entered it in a profound sense of the divinity of his "call;" therefore, in meditating upon it, and preparing for it, his whole soul was put into the process.

Brother Millington, who was in so many ways a link between God and the ministerial work of this Conference, led Brother Seckner into the field. Surprising him with a license to preach, this Presiding Elder, ushering him into the work, inspired him with his own faith and zeal. Deeply conscious of his lack of intellectual preparation—though he had attended Cazenovia Seminary for a time—Brother Seckner was greatly oppressed by it. However, he accepted his commission with the two-fold purpose of ardently studying, and arduously working, toward "handling aright the word of truth."

This life has not been without its shadows. But the heroic struggles were with marked results, in himself, and in the fruits of his work. He grew in faith and self-control. Like a certain clock, on the face of which were the words "Strike—Silence," his characteristic silences were in thorough preparation for his efficient strokes. Through endurance, thought, resolution, he fitted his testimonies unto most wholesome results. The rewards of his preaching, pastoral care and counsel, and his wise administration, are partly evident in the many letters of consolation received by his bereaved wife. Far more will they be evident when, in the land of victory, the redeemed, whose triumphs he has helped to bring, shall tell their story; and the Infinite Christ, who called him, sustained him, sanctified his work, shall say, "Well done."

Cary Goodwin Coulter

Cary Goodwin Coulter died at Garden Grove, California, September 14, 1913, the week of the close of our last Annual Conference. He was born at West Bedford, Ohio, June 30, 1868, and lived in that state until fourteen years old, when, with his parents, he moved to Iowa Falls, Iowa. His parents were both Christians, his father being a Methodist and his mother a member of the United Presbyterian Church. At the age of nineteen he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. His consecration for Christian service was soon recognized and he was given an exhorter's license, a little later being licensed as a local preacher, and during the Conference year of 1894-5 supplying at Oakland, Iowa. The next year he was received on trial in the Northwest Iowa Conference and appointed to Swea City. He attended school at the State Normal at Cedar Falls and spent two years at Cornell College, and for awhile was instructor at Ellsworth College. As a pastor in the Northwest Iowa Conference he served Oakland, Swea City, Anthon and Oto, Danbury, Lake View and West Side. On account of failing health he took the supernumerary relation in 1902 and sought light work in the Colorado Conference. He was transferred in 1905 and ordained Elder by Bishop Wilson at Greeley in 1906. Here he was stationed at Bald Mountain, Jefferson Avenue, Denver; Ft. Lupton and Yuma, Ariz. In 1910 he felt that his health demanded another climate, so he took work at Yuma, Ariz., on a Mission. Last year he was no better, and in order to avoid the heat of the Arizona summer he and family moved to Garden Grove, Cal., where the end came a few weeks later.

Brother Coulter married Miss Edwinna Bryson, August 27, 1896, at Iowa Falls. Four children were born to them. Mrs. Coulter and two boys, Theodore and Cary Edwin, survive. The funeral was conducted in our Garden Grove church and was in charge of Rev. S. J. Rogers, former superintendent of the Arizona Mission, where Brother Coulter worked for three years. The burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Garden Grove, California.

Brother Coulter loved the work of the ministry, and, while suffering for years with the terrible physical inroads of the dreadful white plague with gradually declining strength, preached almost to the very last day. A faithful and beloved pastor, husband, and father, he endured the cross and burden of physical suffering like a good soldier of Jesus Christ. Now the cross is lifted and the glory of the King shines full in his face. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

George Freeman Brock

George Freeman Brock was born in Macon county, Mo., April 15, 1862, and died at Beth-El Hospital, Colorado Springs, Colo., February 28, 1914.

His religious aspirations were early apparent, and at seventeen he professed conversion, uniting with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. For twelve years thereafter he followed a business career, striving to quiet the persistent voice which whispered, "I have anointed you to preach My gospel." At last the conviction became too strong to be longer resisted, so, having studied at the Huntsville Baptist College, and attended a Bible School for some time, he entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the weakest denomination in that part of the country, giving as his reason for the change, "that all may know that I have not entered the ministry for money."

In that statement we read the vital spirit of the man. Never has there been in the ranks of the ministry, or laymen, a more humble, self-sacrificing, and self-effacing man than George F. Brock. And he, who loved so truly, was truly loved in turn by all his brother ministers, and by the hosts of men and women whom he served in his various charges.

Brother Brock began his ministry in Arkansas, preaching at Cleveland Circuit, Amity, Judsonia and Ft. Smith; then for health reasons he removed to Colorado and has served efficiently the charges at Goldfield, Harkness Heights, Denver, Buena Vista, Carbondale and Holly.

For some time before his appointment to Holly he had been in failing health, but, in spite of physical pain and weakness he went joyfully to his new field last September, and had won the confidence and love of these new parishioners before he had to take to the bed of sickness from which he was never able to arise.

During his last illness he was generously cared for at Beth-El Hospital, Colorado Springs, his devoted wife being near him every day. Our pastors from Colorado Springs and Pueblo paid him frequent visits, showing every kindness that love could dictate. But his malady was beyond human ability to check, and after weeks of unmeasured suffering he slipped away to be at rest with God.

Consecrated in heart, earnest and thoughtful in life, self-forgetful in service, instructive and constructive in preaching, patient in sickness, and glorified in death, he was truly a brother beloved, and a workman that needed not to be ashamed.

Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Colorado Springs, G. M. Henderson of St. Paul Church, Pueblo, a former Presiding Elder and life-long friend of the deceased, preaching the sermon from 1 Tim., 4:6, "A good minister of Jesus Christ," which concisely and accurately describes our brother. Six pastors of other denominations in the city acted as pall-bearers.

Edward G. Harbert

Edward G. Harbert was born February 28, 1855, in Harrison county, West Virginia, and died July 13, 1914, in Stockton, Calif. He was married to Miss Gertrude Elizabeth Ritter on September 10, 1874. Converted at the age of fourteen, he at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. After such education as the public schools afforded, he was received into the Traveling Connection by the West Virginia Conference about 1878, and thereafter served acceptably several Charges. Symptoms of failing health led to a year's work in the Nebraska Conference, and then a transfer to the Colorado Conference, where he served a year on the Fort Collins Circuit in 1887, and at Ouray in 1888. The way then opening, he was appointed to attend school, and was so occupied for some four years, completing the course at Garret Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill. Under the shadow of physical disorders he consecrated his naturally bright and spiritual powers to successful ministry in the Missouri Conference until 1901, when he was transferred into the Colorado Conference and appointed to Rock Springs, Wyo. From that time on, his health waned materially, and after several attempts to continue in the pastorate, together with supernumerary years, in 1908 he was promoted to the Retired List, and took up his abode in Clovis, Southern California, where at length the state extended to him the kindness of its care in its asylum at Stockton, where he breathed his last. Naturally, Brother Harbert was a choice spirit and a lover of all that is best. His success amid his handicaps showed what his soul longed for, and what a power he might have been had his path been unshadowed. His funeral was conducted by the Rev. D. A. Allen, and the interment was in Clovis. His widow and daughter have our sympathy and care.

JOHN J. LACE.

Mrs. George M. Henderson

M. May Davis was born June 6, 1870, in Newton, Ill., and died in Pueblo, Colo., Dec. 5, 1913. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when eight years old; graduated at Rogers College in 1890; wedded to G. M. Henderson Dec. 25, 1890, becoming teacher in the Pea Ridge Academy, of which he was the head. For twenty-two years she was an exceedingly helpful pastor's wife, to them coming a group of noble children. She was an earnest Christian and a remarkable soul-winner, on three occasions leading her entire Sunday School class to Christ, usually of young men. During the last four years she suffered intensely from the great white plague, but ever cheerful and hopeful. She was brave to the last, comfortingly saying to grieving loved ones: "I am just going home, and will wait for your coming." The funeral service was in charge of Superintendent H. M. Mayo, assisted by others, and the interment was in Mountain View Cemetery. For such as she death ends not all, but is its real beginning.

Mrs. Alpha Raney Moore

At Carbondale, Colo., on April 26, 1914, Alpha Raney Moore, wife of the Rev. John Z. Moore, passed to her coronation. It was an hour of triumph. For five years she had been a sufferer from the white plague, the better to battle with which her husband brought her hither from Korea. She was born December 17, 1877, and ended her earthly career in her thirty-seventh year. She graduated from Scio College in 1900, and became a Deaconess. In 1905 she felt drawn to the foreign field, and was appointed to Korea, being married at Kobe, Japan, to the Rev. John Z. Moore, already of the Korea Mission. For four happy years she labored to show to the Koreans the Christ, the Savior of the world. Smitten with the dread disease, she was brought home, and finally to Colorado, where the end of troubling came, and this servant of the Christ went to her eternal reward.

MINISTERS' WIVES' ASSOCIATION.

The business session of the Association was held in the Baptist Church at La Junta, Sept. 12, 1914. In the absence of Mrs. J. J. Lace, the president, the vice-president, Mrs. C. W. Huett, called the meeting to order, and requested Mrs. B. T. Vincent to conduct the devotions. The verse for the lesson was John xv, 15: "I have called you friends. Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I have commanded you." "The test of true friendship," it was remarked, "is self-sacrifice. Be women of prayer, if you would have influence and power. Two bits of advice I would give you, 'Don't see it,' and 'Be a friend to your husband.' There will be many things on your charge this year that it will be best for you not to see or hear. To be a true friend to your husband, you must cover from the eyes of the world the little imperfections you see in him, and by love help him to correct these things. Be a true helpmeet to him in all of his work."

Mrs. M. D. Hornbeck led in prayer, the burden of which was "That each of us might be true to the trusts placed in our hands." In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Edna Pingree, Mrs. C. H. Inman was elected secretary pro tem. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The Constitution was read and discussed. A collection was taken to defray expenses. Upon motion, the wife of Presiding Bishop Edwin H. Hughes was made an honorary member. Upon report of the nominating committee the following officers were elected to serve for two years: President, Mrs. S. B. Warner; vice-president, Mrs. C. A. Rowand; secretary, Mrs. F. W. Imboden; treasurer, Mrs. G. W. Cook.

The secretary was requested to write letters of greeting to Mrs. G. R. McDowell, Mrs. Mary E. Todd, Mrs. Grant Giller; and of loving sympathy to Mrs. George Brock, Mrs. John Carson and Mrs. Edward Estlow.

A reception for the Ministers' Wives at Harmony Hall was given on Friday evening by the ladies of the La Junta Church. There were fifty guests. The banquet served was most delightful. A short program followed. Mrs. Vincent spoke out of a heart full of love, telling us to be helpful to each other. Mrs. Harris said her latch-string was always out to a minister's wife, and she hoped to see us this year in her home. Mrs. Margaret Moors, Superintendent of the Deaconess' Home in Denver, gave us a splendid talk. Mrs. Howard Goldie spoke words of welcome, introducing Mrs. Crooks, of the Presbyterian Church, who gave a royal welcome to the homes of the city, wishing us a year of the greatest prosperity.

MRS. F. W. IMBODEN, Secretary.

N. B.—Because of the impossibility of placing the required tables on the size of page decided upon by the Minutes Commission, the columns as to General Conference Expenses were omitted. As reported (?) only about half the apportionment for General Conference Expense has been raised during the three years, leaving as much more to be raised this year. (Editor of Minutes.)

Offers Special Opportunity for the Training of Men for the Ministry

FIRST—It puts first the training of men as preachers, not by lectures simply, but by constant practice and criticism in all kinds of public speaking.

A MODERN MINISTRY—It prepares men for today's work in the Church, to know the conditions of today, to meet them with modern methods. Special attention given to Sunday School and Social Service.

PERSONAL ATTENTION—Each student receives personal aid for his own needs and problems. Each man is helped to make the most of himself.

PICKED MEN—The Faculty is formed of picked men with the best training of home and foreign schools and with practical experience in the work of the Church.

THE CLIMATE—Colorado's world-famed climate enables the average man to do his best, and makes it possible for some to go on who have had to give up elsewhere.

OTHER ADVANTAGES—A fine building, good dormitory, excellent library, splendid location, the presence of a great city, proximity to Denver University.

YOU cannot afford to enter the ministry in this day without the most thorough preparation. There is a way if you have the will.

Free tuition and dormitory; board at very moderate cost; opportunities for self-help
